

ARCTIC CENTRE
University of Lapland

UNIVERSITY
OF TAMPERE

Mediating the Arctic

Perspectives on northern people in a workshop organized by University of Tampere and Arctic Centre, University of Lapland

TIME AND PLACE

Friday 16th March, Arctic Centre, meeting room Thule (Arktikum House, Rovaniemi)

ORGANIZERS:

CEN (The Changing Environment of the North: Cultural Representations and Uses of Water (CEN)): <https://blogs.uef.fi/cen-aqua/>

TaRC (Tampere Research Centre for Russian and Chinese Media);
<https://research.uta.fi/tarc/>

Arctic Centre, University of Lapland www.arcticcentre.org

CONTACTS:

Arja Rosenholm

Professor of Russian Language and Culture

University of Tampere, Finland

e-mail: arja.rosenholm@uta.fi

GSM work: +358 (0)50 3181245

Markku Heikkilä

Head of Science Communications

Arctic Centre, University of Lapland

markku.heikkila@ulapland.fi

+358404844300

PROGRAM:

08.30 – 09.00 Morning coffee

09.00 – 09.30

Introductions and welcome

Markku Heikkilä, Arctic Centre

Arja Rosenholm, University of Tampere

Ari Heinonen, University of Tampere

Participants' presentation round

09.30 – 12.00 Session 1: Research presentations and discussions

12.00 – 13.00 Lunch, Arktikum restaurant

13.00 – 15.30 Session 2: Research presentations and discussions

(Refreshment / Coffee breaks about 10.30 and 14.30)

PRESENTATIONS, Session 1

Chair: Arja Rosenholm

Markku Lehtimäki (University of Eastern Finland): Humanist Perspectives on the Arctic: Introducing the Research Project "The Changing Environment of the North.

Florian Stammer (Arctic Centre) new research project focusing on youth wellbeing in Arctic industrial cities (www.arcticcentre.org/youthwellbeing Live, Work or Leave? Youth – wellbeing and the viability of (post) extractive Arctic industrial cities in Finland and Russia)

Arja Rosenholm (University of Tampere): What is meant by the "Northern Text" in the Russian Context?

Johannes Riquet (University of Tampere): Remediating the Arctic: The Case of James Balog

Michael Riessler: Recording, Annotating, and Analysing Oral Histories of the Arctic – Methods in Documentary Anthropology and Linguistics.

Lukas Allemann, Stephan Dudeck (Arctic Centre) Sharing Oral History Recordings with Arctic Indigenous Communities

Anna Stammer-Gossmann (Arctic Centre): Changing environment and meanings of water (Studies from Russia and Norway)

12.00 – 13.00 Lunch (Arktikum House restaurant)

13.00 – 15.30

PRESENTATIONS, Session 2

Chair: Markku Heikkilä

Monica Tennberg, (Arctic Centre, Sustainable Development research group): Political economy of flood protection management in Northern Finland

Susanna Pirnes (Arctic Centre) Past and memory in Russian Arctic Politics

Dmitry Yagodin (University of Tampere): Climate journalism in the Arctic nations: media coverage of the COP summits from Copenhagen (2009) to Paris (2015)

Ari Heinonen (University of Tampere, TaRC: Tampere journalism programme and TaRC

Mika Perkiömäki (University of Tampere, TaRC): coordinator of the event Arctic and the Media, 26-30.11. 2018, University of Tampere (TaRC)

Markku Heikkilä (Arctic Centre): Experiences from Barents Mediasphere project

Maija Myllylä (Arctic Centre): Barents Press international, history and current status

Discussion on further steps