

News archive 2013

29th of Oct 2013

Oskari Vilamo Foundation annually awards the highest quality Master's thesis done in the field of construction. This year's winner was Mikael Mäkitalo from TUT's Building physics research group. His thesis was called Hygrothermal Performance of Wood-framed External Walls in the Present and Future Climate. Congratulations!

---

25th of Oct 2013

Thank you to all who attended the Finnish Building Physics Symposium 2013 (aka Rakennusfysikkaseminaari 2013). The next symposium will be held in autumn 2015. Keynote-presentations from the symposium in 2013 are available for download from Finnish Building Physics Symposium webpage.

1st of Feb 2013

Juha Vinha was granted full professorship starting on 1.2.2013.